A Home Away from Home

The Regina and Saskatoon cancer patient lodges offer a home away from home for patients and their companions travelling from out of town.

The lodges provide guests with a high level of service and comfort designed to meet the needs of patients.

The Regina Cancer Patient Lodge is located across from the Allan Blair Cancer Centre. The Saskatoon Patient Lodge is located across from the Royal University Hospital.

Virtual tours of the lodges are available at www.saskcancer.ca/lodge.

Accommodations

The lodges are self-care facilities. Guests are expected to manage their own personal needs, including medications. If assistance is needed, patients are required to have a companion stay with them.

Smoking is not allowed inside the lodges and smoking on the grounds is restricted to designated areas.

Guest Rooms

Each room features a bed, desk, side-chair, towels, extra pillows and blankets, clock radio and a private washroom.

Amenities

Guests at the lodge receive three home-cooked meals per day, served cafeteria style. Special diets can be accommodated upon request.

Other amenities include:

- snacks and beverages
- games room
- lounges with cable television/DVD players
- computers with high-speed Internet
- wireless Internet
- outdoor patio
- self-serve laundry
- library
